Drop Off and Collection - Scoil Bhríde, Athgarvan.

September 2021

Pupils should enter their class through the correct door.

Access/Egress:

- There will not be staggered start or finish times (unless need to review)
- We will use the 6 entry doors with 2 classes only entering and leaving by each door.
- A teacher supervise each corridor and greet the children from 9-9.15 am each morning.
- Parents cannot enter onto the school site. Children are to be dropped to the 2 gates, one at traffic lights and one at GAA. They will be collected from here also.
- Cars can access the set down area in the morning. Parents CANNOT leave their car, child must be capable of exiting car without help, and parent cannot park. This area will NOT be open at pick up times.
- If parents need to enter the school site or building it is BY APPOINTMENT only.
- A parent contacted to pick up an unwell child will be directed to drive to rear door at GP room to pick up.
- -All parents entering school for any reason must wear a face covering.

Yard:

- Children will have their normal 2 breaks on yard (10.45-11.00 and 12.30-1.00)
- The senior yard will be divided onto bubbles. (Children must stay in their class bubble and only play with their own classmates).
- We will be using the front set down area as yard space to facilitate the operation of these bubbles (Gate will always be closed once morning set down is finished). Yard sections will be lined out with paint.
- Children will be supervised at all times on the yard as usual.
- Lining up by the children will be done in their class pod in their class bubble.
